

G-8 Preliminary notes deckt den Tisch

Speisekarte

Getränke

Bier

Wein

Mineralwasser

(Stilles Wasser, Tafelwasser)

Limonade (Limo):

Coke > Spezi

Fanta

Sprite

Saft

Apfelschorle

Kaffee

Tee

Milch

Vorspeisen

Suppe

Salat

Note: Technically these are not really Vorspeisen. We're going to cheat on this detail.

Hauptgerichte

Wiener Schnitzel

Sauerbraten

Rouladen

Maultaschen

Currywurst

Beilagen

Kartoffelpüree
Kartoffelsalat
Salzkartoffeln
Pommes frites
Bratkartoffeln
Sauerkraut
Rotkohl
Spätzle

Nachtisch

Eis
Torte
Kuchen
Obstbecher

There are two past tense forms in German:

Conversational past and narrative past.

We will look at conversational past this semester.

It is one of the most common forms of past tense, used mostly in spoken German.

helping verb:

hat (most common)

ist (intransitive verbs)

(= cannot take D.O.)

(most common:

forward motion such as

come, go, run, etc.)

past participle

weak = ge+verb+t

strong = ge+verb+en

(the strong verb can change)

mixed = ge+verb(change)+t

Ich habe Volleyball gespielt (weak participle)

Ich habe den Ball geschlagen (strong participle)

Ich bin nach Hause gegangen (strong participle with change. Intransitive verb)